About

FAQ:

A Bride's Interview with Amanda Hollowell

Please take a moment to read this before hiring Amanda and her planning team.

Bride: How long have you been a wedding planner?

Amanda: I have been an event planner for ten years. I have been blessed to do a mixture of corporate and social events and I have now been solely focusing on wedding planning for the past four years. Specifically, destination weddings.

Bride: How did you become a planner?

Amanda: I have owned my own public relations firm, and had the chance to work with a diverse set of clients from celebrities to professional athletes.

I later streamlined my skill set for event planning. I was a Destination Services Sales Manager for La Quinta Resort and Club, A Waldorf Astoria Collection property in La Quinta, CA. There, I planned all aspects of event and travel for corporate groups. I designed and coordinated tons of events. My major client list includes, Black Enterprise, Yahoo, Microsoft, and Toyota Motor Sales. In Savannah, Georgia I have worked in sales for Classic Party Rentals and Ocean Plaza Beach Resort.

I am a member of the Savannah Wedding Tourism Council. I was one of the lead coordinators for Wedding for Warriors in Savannah, GA, an annual charity event that marries 40 military couples on one day. I volunteer for the American Diabetes Association and I sit as a committee member for the Savannah Black Heritage Festival, all are great non-profit organizations that I love lending my skill set and time to.

Owning and operating my own wedding and event planning company was a natural progression.

Bride: I briefly read over your services and really love what you offer <http://savannaheventsandweddings.com/services-2/>

I also love the pictures of your past events, very nicely done <http://savannaheventsandweddings.com/portfolio/>

What I really want to know is what sets you apart from other planners?

Amanda: I offer my brides extensive experience and flexibility. My past work, from non-profit weddings to lavish weddings, helps me to understand all types of bridal needs. I am able to partner with my brides in planning their special day. I will work with all budgets and can provide diverse services that allow me to custom plan for each one of my brides.

Bride: This all sounds so wonderful but also sounds expensive. Can we afford this?

Amanda: I feel like your wedding is a treasured experience, and you would be compelled to pay for the peace of mind of knowing your wedding will be handled in the utmost professional way.

Bride: Who do you work best with?

Amanda: I work well with the DIY Bride, brides who are very creative and aware of their budget but just need assistance on the day of for coordinating. I also work well with the full service bride who needs help with the whole planning; from finding the venue to the florists I have the resources to assist them all.

Bride: Who would not benefit from your services?

Amanda: Typically the shop around bride, my services can be broken down into a la carte. But I cannot piece meal my full service package. Also if you have a lot of help on the day of you do not need my services. One more hand may not help; unless, you are making that extra help the lead.

Bride: Will I lose control of my wedding if you are planning it for me?

Amanda: Not at all! We are building a partnership. My goal is to be the advocate for my bride. I am here to make your special day as close to your dreams as possible.

Bride: Will you work with already contracted vendors?

Amanda: Yes, as long as they have all the proper insurance and are permitted to work with the venue. I have no problem working with an outside vendor.

Bride: Do you accept credit cards?

Amanda: Yes, we accept all major credit and debit cards.

Bride: Do you carry Liability Insurance?

Amanda: Yes, I do carry Liability Insurance and if the event calls for it I will also acquire specified event insurance.

Bride: Do you take more than one wedding per day?

Amanda: This is a yes and no answer. I have a team that assists me depending on how large the wedding party is and how many locations the wedding has involved. I am up front with all my brides about my availability and what member of my team will be coordinating their special day.

Bride: What happens next to start the process?

Amanda: You can call me at 912-631-2390 or email me at amanda@savannaheventsandweddings.com to set up a "get acquainted" complimentary consultation package to see if our personalities will work well together.

Bride: Can I contact your former brides?

Amanda: Yes you can, better yet go to this link and read some of our past reviews. <http://savannaheventsandweddings.com/testimonials-2/>

Bride: If I have more questions, can I call you?

Amanda: Yes, we highly encourage our future clients to call and set up a complimentary consultation. Please feel free to call or email me.
